Dear Dr. and Mrs. Houser,

I would like to thank you for exposing my mind to the religions of the past and present. I sincerely appreciate your understanding and patience with me. I hope that someday I will find my path with God. Best of luck in the future to two wonderful people.

Sincerely,
Hilda Friedel

DEDICATION

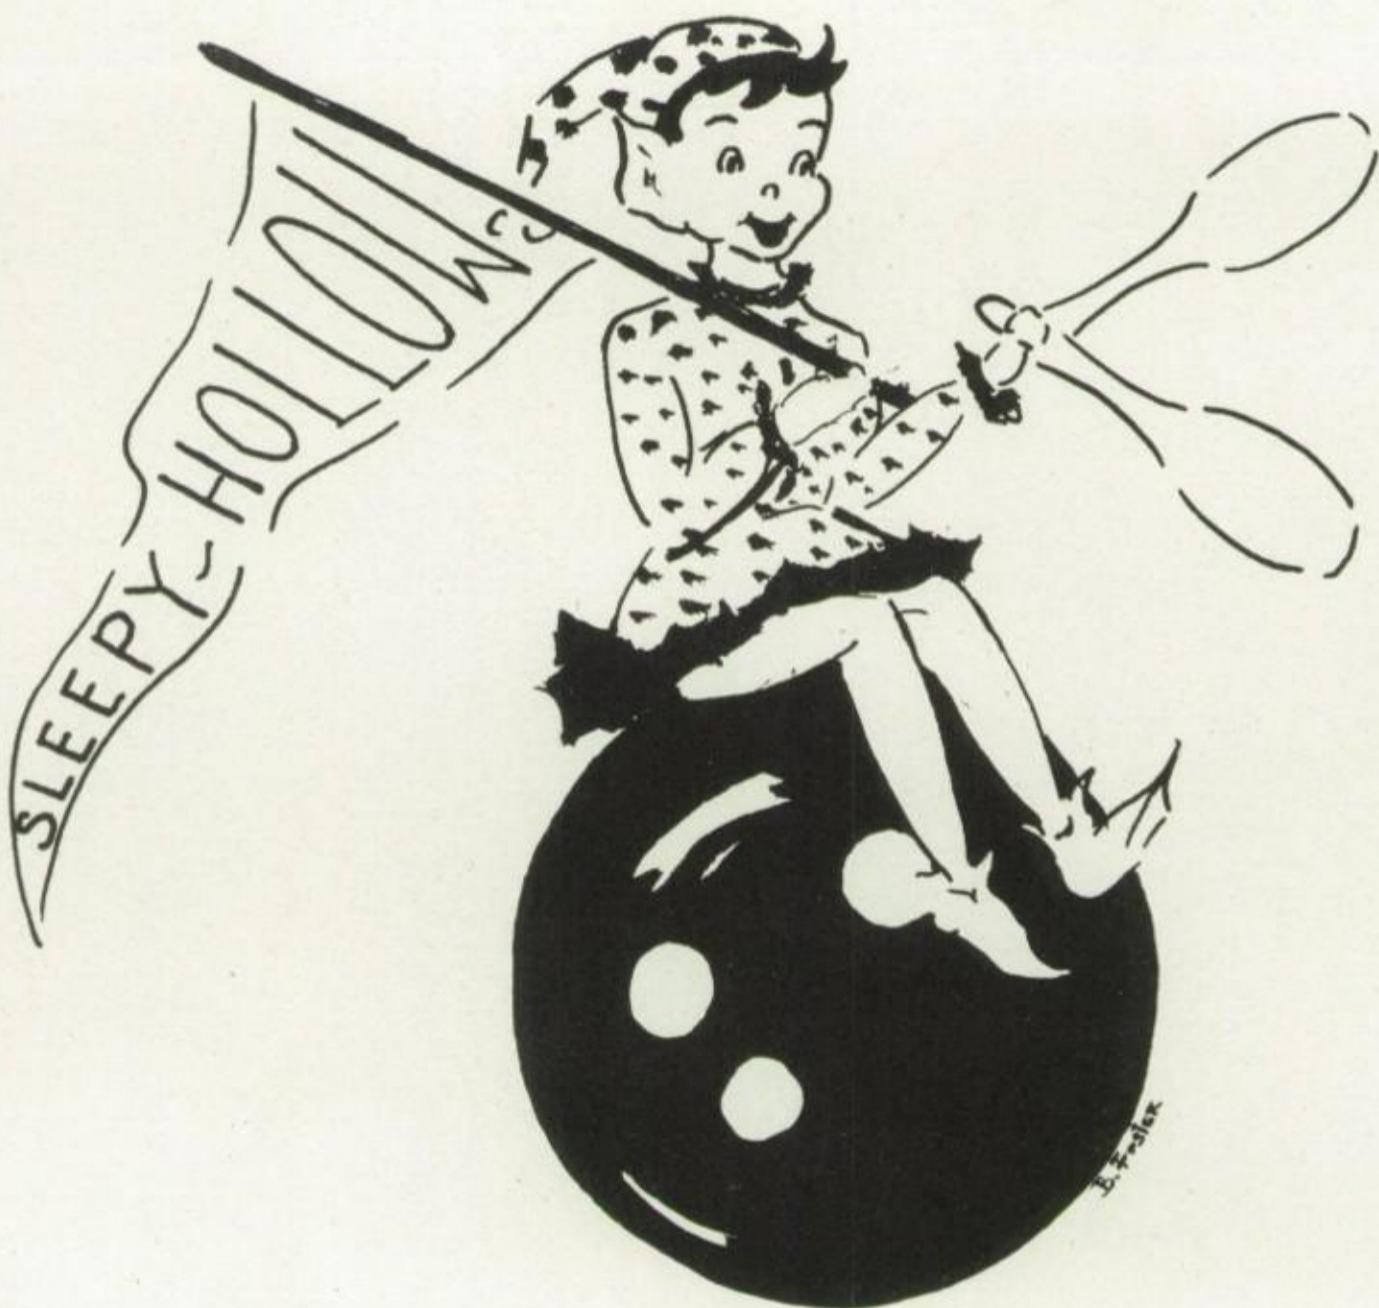

Behind every successful organization there is a guiding force which, although omnipresent, works quietly and without publicity. Such a force is Mrs. Karlene Kent Steele, who, in addition to teaching her many academic subjects, has been our "guiding light" for this yearbook, as for many in the past. In both fields she has won the respect and admiration of the entire student body.

And so, at last, there comes a chance to show a little of our appreciation for her unfailing guidance and honest judgment. With this thought in our minds and hearts, we, the Staff, dedicate the 1954 Sketch Book to Karlene Kent Steele.

FOREWORD

On a commanding hill overlooking the historic Hudson River, lies the campus of Edgewood Park, close to the valley of Sleepy Hollow. Here, born from the pages of Washington Irving's written collection, "THE SKETCH BOOK," Rip Van Winkle awakens from a long sleep to find his countryside has been transformed. Lost in his world of thought by this bewildering sight, he ventures forth to be greeted by the gnomes who open the gates which unfold the tale of Edgewood Park, through the pages of our Sketch Book.

THIS WE REMEMBER...

Thoughts will often wander back to familiar memories . . . each of us has had a special day, a special hour, a special laugh . . . These things will we remember.

"We the People" opened the year with a "Rah Rah" party for the new Juniors. Classes finally got underway with girls running to the Social Desk to find out where in the world such-and-such a room was. The formal Faculty Reception Acquaintance dance was a very successful highlight of the fall.

Janie learned a new song in early '53, "Ding Dong." And Margot decided to spend more time at school. With Spring came the new Student Council. Uproar became silence and Maryel reigned. The Woo Poo spring weekend; Susie will never forget that!

Joyce, won't Pete ever have a car that runs during Junior-Senior weekend? Marge and Jo hope so! Gloria and Pat will often think of that weekend, too . . . dining and mucho Dixieland. Rosie and Sali, was that the time you had trouble with the elevator? The May Pageant was really something . . . Juniors were fairies and gingerbread men down on the beautiful meadow. Then came the Daisy Chain. How about it, Pidge, was it fun?

Remember the new Juniors: so young, so fresh, so oblivious of their future? The many picnics behind Mrs. Sowell's house were wonderful get-togethers, but didn't we have a slight cold spell? We vaguely remember Susie shivering over the fireplace.

Where did all the peanuts come from, Lee? Wow, they kept us surviving practically all of October. And then Kay came through with real, honest-to-goodness-no-fibbing pretzels!

We won't forget the days that Joan, Betty, Bobbie, and the rest appeared with their rings! And how about Joyce, Jeanne, Gloria, Pidge, Janie, Bod, Arleen and June with their various and sundry jewels? Joyce has paid for hers in many long phone calls.

How many sweaters were knitted in December? How many needles were lost, how many rows ripped? Rosemary was our maestro . . . It was along about December that the Juke-box turned Spanish. The smoker became crowded with Sambas and Mambos . . . and Miss Kurkhill cut her hair. Libby, do you remember counting those demerits before Christmas? And Maryel, how about the night Jack called and you said, "How nice" . . . How about the Friday a crowd went to Ossining for Sal's Christmas dinner. You were really worried about staying at school, weren't you?

There was "Holly Haven", the Christmas dance. Arlene, that Woo Poo uniform cheered many hearts. But wasn't Chris worried? Did everyone notice all the orchids that night? My, how the dates enjoyed themselves! Jo and Sali heard the one o'clock news!

Oh, what a mad rush to get the Sketch Book out! With Eg tearing her hair and the rest working like fiends—it was really hectic!

We wonder if Libby remembers the two years of ukelele playing, or Kram the endless bridge. It looked like knitting had replaced bridge for a while. But bermudas and knee-socks never went out of style . . . girls even wore argyles! Arlene always enjoyed typing so much; we guess she'll be an A-1 secretary.

With a million names and a trillion faces still on our minds, and along with all of the Seniors from E. P., we lift our hearts and say "Thank you" and "God Bless You" for two wonderful years.

RIP'S AROUSAL

Rip, having viewed Edgewood Park and the yearly activities of study and companionship of the girls who live within its walls, hesitates before returning to the hillside where he will fall into eternal sleep. In his mind is the question, "What will become of the girls who last walked through the doors of Edgewood Park on May 31, 1954?"

Joanne Leisure will undoubtedly still be sitting in the Senior Smoker — puffing away. New York will enthrall many of the talented graduates. Rip can see Rose Lill "sharpening her flats" in the Metropolitan. Sara Buckner will have her first Broadway hit—drawlin' the crowd, while CBS shall thrive on the beautiful French songs of Lee Bader and Hilde Hinck. Some of the Merchandise majors will be well established and doing big business in the fashion cities of the world. Ginny O'Such will have bought out Lord & Taylor. Just in from Canada is Freddie

PROPHESY Continued

Fee to show her "ski-easy" fashions; but nothing can top Joan Hayes for revolutionizing the fashions on Mars.

The new election results will show Maryel Garrett the governor of Philadelphia. Janie Sullivan will be supporting her by pushing a new bill, "Education through Song", with Betty Barrocas for the dance angle. To top the votings, Audrey Murray will have been elected to the U. N.!

From West Point — the fortification in the Catskills — will have come alumni news: Barbara McMurrain, absorbed in marriage, will be still moving from post to post and meeting Angie Carrasquillo occasionally. Irene Bodnar, with that two-minute notice, will be packing her "little Pointers" off to one of Arlene Welsh's annual "Barracks Chatter" club meetings. Word comes from Susie Nickerson, the first U. S. Post Mistress, that Joyce Dobbie, lost in an igloo and snowed under with housework, is unable to attend.

Doing graduate art work at U.C.L.A., will be Barbara Foster, under her ever encouraging housemother, Arlene Anthony. A fellow classmate, Joan Carswell, is still studying those crazy figures.

Among the adventurous gad-abouts Rip visualizes Lynn Mutter parachuting to the mysterious "Monkey Island". "Spunky Monkey" Pickle, who is experimenting with evolution, will be there to welcome her. Pat Egan, June Wetzel, and Libby Peacock, weary from their endless swimming across to Europe, will stop off for the fun. The breeze will have brought the news that Sandi DeGarmo, Pidge Hedstrom (in search of a new "pick-up" stitch), and Joan Zimmerman will arrive in Clorinda Parziale's new yacht. Margot Hickey, who had to go back for her drawings, is hurrying to join them.

Marriage will have captured Jean Kramer and little Margie Lowman. Alicia and Adela Sandoval have husbands who "no-speeka-da-Engleesh". Barbara Waugh and Jo Smith have sent their kiddies off to school to study under Betty Schlesinger, while Chris Bayley, with her minor surgery notes, meets every emergency.

Headlines of Sali Evans' paper, "News-a-Flying" will bring word that Nora Peverly has "splashed" a new Olympic record, and also the news of the breakup of the "goodies racket" brought about by the publicity of Elvira Morris and Joan Pfeiffer.

Gloria Miles, who is still drinking iced tea, will be driving around with Susie Johnson and her dog in the circle at Lafayette.

With a sigh of contentment, Rip closes his mind to the future and his eyes to the present and drifts back into uncomplicated dreams.

STUDENT COUNCIL

"Lights Out" can be heard echoing through the corridors by members of the student council as they make their rounds through the night. A form of self-government is used in disciplinary cases. The council, with a faculty advisor has a representative from the different classes. This year the council has endeavored to help the students by re-instating an approved demerit system. Every student has a right to a hearing before the Council makes a decision.

President MARY L. GARRETT

Treasurer WINNIFRED FEE

Secretary SUSAN NICKERSON

HOUSE PROCTORS

Members of the student body, under the guidance of student council, are chosen twice a year to enforce the house rules of Edgewood Park. Their position includes such tasks as checking attendance at assembly meetings, and maintaining quiet after "lights out". All credit to them!

ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE

This is the second year Edgewood has had an entertainment committee. Under the guidance of Mrs. Turek and chairman, Jeanne Kramer, the group planned the social affairs of the year. New forms of entertainment were successfully introduced to the student body. These functions were many and varied.

MEDICAL ASSISTANTS ASSOCIATION

The year's activities opened with a picnic and an enjoyable evening at the Athletic Association's Hallowe'en party. Much hard work was done to make the formal Christmas dance, "Holly Haven," a success. Such undertakings as field trips, and a dinner in the Medical laboratory just before vacation brought all the members closer together. Capping and Pinning exercises, then a tea closed the Association's year.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club presents to its members interesting information other than that obtained in the class room. They sponsor such things as movies, trips to museums, lectures on art, history and travel. Their outstanding event of the year was the production of a play, "Simone Fait Bonne Impression" at meeting. French songs, games, and refreshments promote a spirit of fellowship among the students.

Spanish girls are we from Edgewood Park. We are joined in our Activities by people of other Nations. We try to Inspire the girls to Show the customs of their Homelands.

Cadence is a characteristic of our Language. We come here to Understand the American way of living in Both school and social life.

RIDING CLUB

The Riding Club, composed of seventeen girls, was outstanding in the year 1953-1954. Under the guidance of Miss Hansen and Miss Clements, many enjoyable opportunities were offered to the students. The Riding Club was well represented at the Hallowe'en Party. It provided a horror house for the thrill-loving girls. In the springtime, the Edgewood riders competed with the girls from Briarcliff Junior College.

Manager: HILDEGARD HINCK

THIMBLE, NEEDLE AND THREAD

Our group, under the guidance of Miss Bowman, consists of girls interested in clothing. From patterns and original designs we create fashions including everything from pajamas to formal gowns. This workmanship is exhibited twice annually in the form of fashion shows. At various times during the year we sell articles to benefit not only the club's enjoyment but also charitable organizations.

*President LYNN MUTTER Vice President LEE BADER
Secretary-Treasurer JOAN ZIMMERMAN*

An "Evening in Paris" was only one among the many activities undertaken by the Merchandising Club at Edgewood. The first dance of the year was highlighted by the music of Mr. Pastorelle. We sponsored a booth at the Hallowe'en Party, which also proved to be a big success. This club, along with many others, has helped to make the school year a more diversified and enjoyable one.

*President ARLENE ANTHONY
Vice President PATRICIA CLEMENTS*

*Secretary IRENE BODNAR
Treasurer LYNN MUTTER*

MERCHANDISING CLUB

The purpose of this Club is to develop characteristics that will carry over into the business world. The Club strives to promote leadership, responsibility, and initiative. Programs were given stressing good grooming, job applications, and proper office procedure.

*President JOAN CARSWELL
Vice President SUE SKELTON*

*Secretary SUE JOHNSON
Treasurer LORRAINE RASIMOUICZ*

SECRETARIAL CLUB

DRAMATIC CLUB

For girls interested in the Theater, the Dramatic Club, under the direction of Mrs. Clark, is invaluable. It offers knowledge pertaining to the production of plays and the development of poise and imagination. In the fall, the members presented a very successful production of "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay". The costumes were authentic! Other activities participated in by the Dramatic Club were "The Night Club," the Valentine Dance, "Sweetheart Swing"; and the annual spring play "Berkeley Square".

Vice President JANE SULLIVAN

Secretary-Treasurer SUSAN NICKERSON

FIRE PROCTORS

Two of the qualities which a girl must possess to be a fire proctor are a sense of responsibility and a calm disposition. Each fire proctor is in charge of an assigned group of students during fire drills. They must see that these girls are dressed warmly. They must also check to see that all windows are closed and that all girls are accounted for and in their proper stations.

The Kindergarten Club, under the direction of Mrs. Oakes, sponsored a booth for Hallowe'en. They sold gifts and corsages for donation to the Ossining Children's Center. They are very proud to have adopted a Korean war baby.

The party of the year was given for the teachers from the Public Schools with whom the Seniors had worked in practice teaching.

President JOANNE LEISURE

Secretary NANCY HEDSTROM
Treasurer NANCY ROSENTHAL

THE KINDERGARTEN CLUB

The Home Economics Club, under the direction of Dr. Rogers, open to all interested students, strives to create friendly relationship and to develop home interest. The social activities included a booth at the Hallowe'en Festival, gifts to less fortunate people at Christmas. In April, the club took part in the Pan American Tea. At the end of the year, there was an exhibition of the fine work which had been done by the club members.

President ELVIRA MORRIS
Vice President JANE SULLIVAN

Secretary ARLEEN WELSH
Treasurer JANE HERZIG

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

ART CLUB

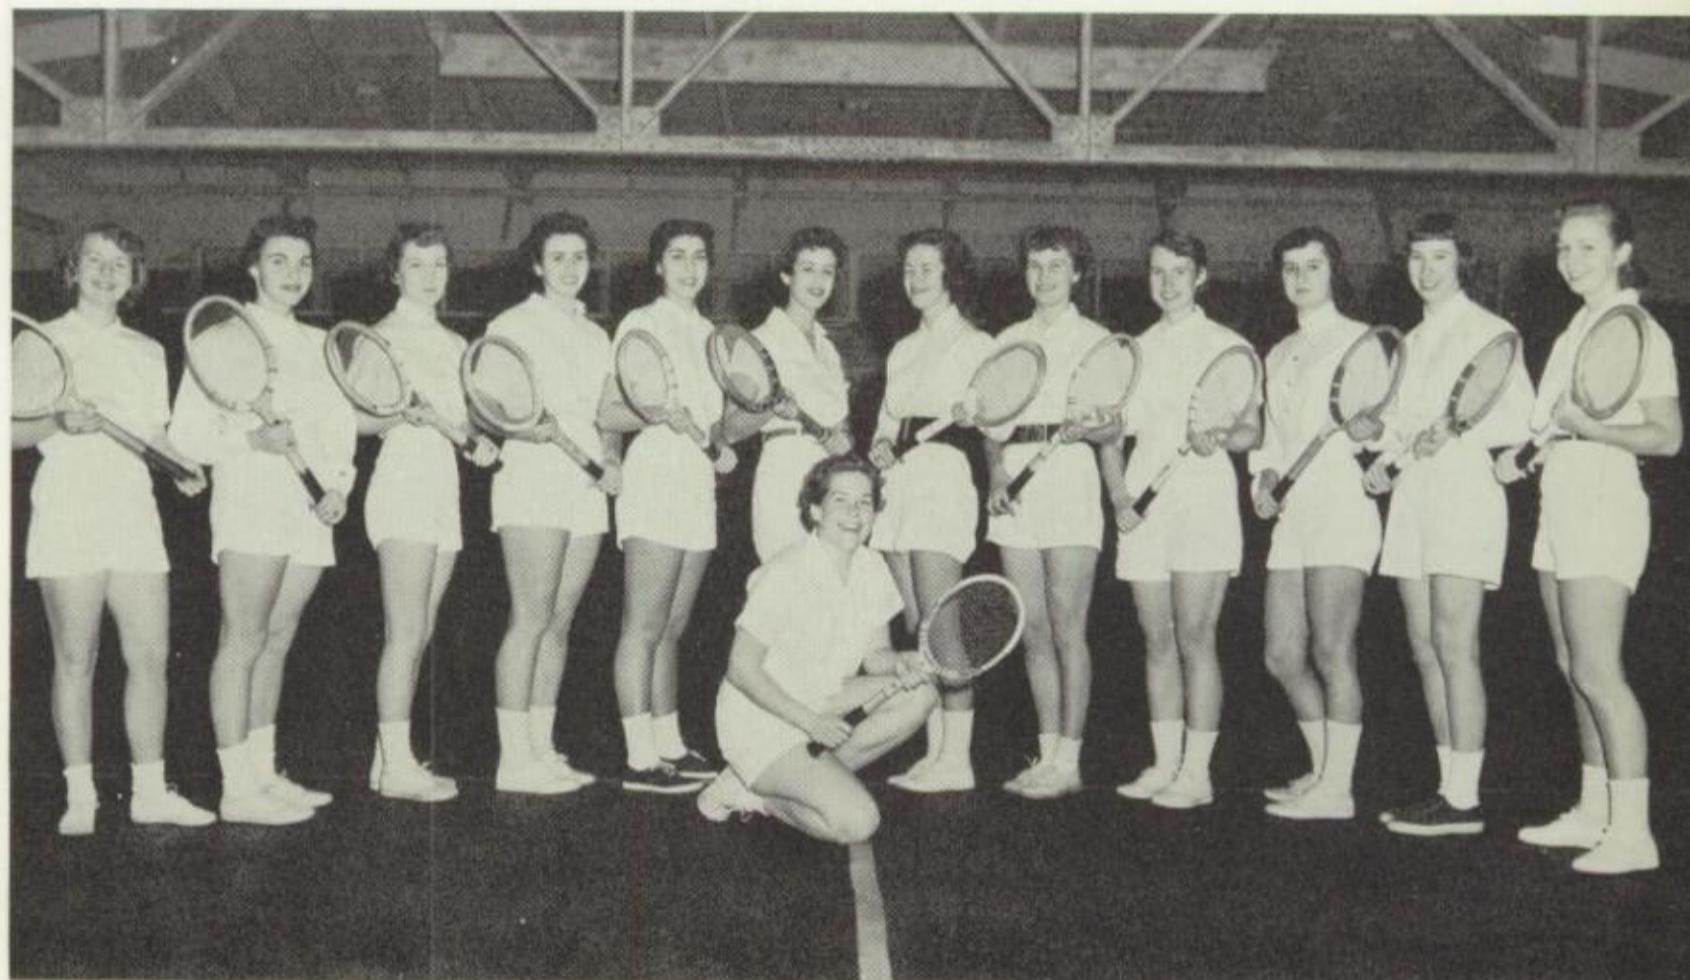

The Arts Club is sponsored by the departments of Interior Decoration, Fashion Design and Fine Arts. Students taking any of these courses as well as those who are interested in art may join. It limits its activities to parties, picnics, and "get-togethers." Money was raised this year by sponsoring a movie, "David and Bethsheba," and by auctioning a cashmere sweater set.

*Vice President LISA ELSBERG
Treasurer JOANNE PFEIFFER*

Secretary NOEL ALLEN

VARSITY TENNIS CLUB

The Tennis Club participates in tournaments throughout the school year. Winter finds the girls busy practicing on the indoor courts. With Spring they eagerly play outside to get ready for the serious competitions. "The Tennis Ball" dance in April, and a movie are sponsored by the club.

RELIGIOUS FELLOWSHIP GROUP

An interfaith organization which promotes fellowship and carries out socially creative tasks without in any way lessening the individual loyalty of its members to the faith of her choice.

President WINNIFRED FEE
Vice President JANE BRADSHAW

Secretary DOROTHY CHAPMAN
Treasurer HILDEGARD HINCK

CHORAL CLUB

A selected group of voices are chosen at the beginning of the year to form the chorus which presents various concerts. Owing to the hard work of this organization the Christmas program was one of the loveliest events of the whole year. They presented a beautiful candlelight procession followed by a cantata in keeping with the Christmas season. The Spring Concert was one we will always remember.

Chorus Director MISS MEAD
President PATRICIA EGAN

Vice President NANCY ROSENTHAL
Secretary OTTOLLE FREDERICKSON

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Athletic Association aims to give every girl the opportunity to participate in a well-rounded program of physical and cultural activities enriching her school years. A spirit of comradeship and an appreciation of interscholastic activities are stressed.

A new system of awarding letters was worked out by the Athletic Board on their camping weekend.

The Athletic Association sponsored the annual Hallowe'en Party giving each club an opportunity to raise funds for their needs. They also planned the Christmas caroling and dance program; the all star basketball team; and the badminton tournament, after which awards were presented to the champions. The annual Lake Placid trip thrilled both skiers and skaters. The May Day Dance and the Festivities through the Choreographers Workshop featured Edgewood's Spanish Dance Troupe, The Musical Water Ballet beautifully combined swimming and dancing in the "Hall of Dreams". Other Athletic Association's clubs are Varsity Tennis, Volleyball, Softball, Archery, and Life Saving.

Dear Dr. and Mrs. House:

With all my fondest salutations I write in your yearbook.

My English has been improved quite a bit
In Sociology I'm quite a hit
And all for the luxury of reading "lit"
To me, you two are really "94!"

Maybe my marks aren't number one
(maybe I'm not as bright as the sun)

My taste is excellent, so when I look
By you two, I am ready "Took!"

Perhaps I cannot write poems well
And piety doesn't ring a bell

Oh heck - I can't write a poem, but I would like to express my deepest appreciation for all your kindness and help in these two years -

Laurie,
Joli
